SLEEP DISORDERS CENTRE
PRINCESS ALEXANDRA HOSPITAL

POLYSOMNOGRAPHERS WANTED

The Sleep Disorders Centre at the Princess Alexandra Hospital currently require an interested polysomnographers to work a combination of set-up (6.30pm to 11.45pm) and overnight shifts (11.15 pm to 7.15am) on a weekly basis. Comprehensive training (paid) will be provided to acquire the skills needed to carry out the overnight tasks. The applicants must be able to participate in biennial training weeks (held in 1st weeks of January and July).

Duties include:

- Overnight monitoring of patients undergoing sleep investigations
- Interpretation of physiological signals during investigations
- Recognition and troubleshooting of equipment faults
- Introduction and adjustment of treatment modalities
- Participation in continuous improvement and professional development activities

Qualifications:

- Relevant tertiary degree or equivalent with a strong component in physiology
- Previous clinical experience an advantage

Renumeration:

- Pay starts in the Queensland Health- Health Practitioners pay scale (HP2) with level decided by experience and qualifications

Contact: Brett Duce OR Kelli Rixon
Scientific Director Senior Scientist
Brett_Duce@health.qld.gov.au Kelli_Rixon@health.qld.gov.au

Sleep Disorders Centre
Princess Alexandra Hospital
Ipswich Rd, Woolloongabba, Q 4102
Phone: 3176 5751